News from the School

Library Updates: Thank you so much to all the parents for voting for the Inclusive Books for Children. I thought we were never going to win as the leading school has over 1000 votes. But...they have just announced that any school over 200 votes, will win books for their school, and the children will be able to help judge the prize winners! This would be amazing and encourage reading in the school. We have just over 100 votes but we need every parent and carer to vote. Please share with friends and family as much as possible. We have 6 days until the votes close!

Lets get voting! https://

Today I have had the pleasure of welcoming the first group of children into their new Friday library sessions. They've all gone home with a book to read/read with you. The book can be kept until the next library session in two weeks time. Library sessions will run every Friday morning with Blue and Green bases visiting on alternating weeks to Red and Yellow bases.

Thank you

Harriet (Doro' Mum in Blue Bases/Library Volunteer)

BE SMART ONLINE

S

SAFE

Keep your personal information safe. When chatting or posting online don't give away things like your full name, password or home address. Remember personal information can be seen in images and videos you share too. Keep them safe to keep yourself safe.

M

MEET

Meeting up with someone you only know online, even a friend of a friend, can be dangerous as this person is still a stranger. If someone you only know online ever asks you to meet up, for personal information or for photos/videos of you then tell an adult straight away and report them together on www.thinkuknow.co.uk

THINK U
KNOW

ACCEPTING

Think carefully before you click on or open something online (e.g. links, adverts, friend requests, photos) as you never know where they may lead to or they may contain viruses. Do not accept something if you are unsure of who the person is or what they've sent you.

R

RELIABLE

You cannot trust everything you see online as some things can be out of date, inaccurate or not entirely true. To find reliable information compare at least three different websites, check in books and talk to someone about what you have found.

T

TELL

Tell a trusted adult if something or someone ever makes you feel upset, worried or confused. This could be if you or someone you know is being bullied online. There are lots of people who will be able to help you like your teachers, parents, carers or contact Childline – 0800 11 11 or www.childline.org.uk

BE SMART WITH A HEART

Remember to always be smart with a heart by being kind and respectful to others online. Make the internet a better place by helping your friends if they are worried or upset by anything that happens online.
