Dear Parents and Carers,

I have attached an important poster regarding attendance and I urge you to take the time to read this very carefully. The new framework around attendance is coming into force from 19th August. Please note the impact of term-time leave and irregular attendance.

This is a government initiative and NOT a school initiative but I would like to take this opportunity to thank those of you who have been striving to improve attendance over time and to those of you who have never taken term-time leave.

Here, at Broomhill, there is a lot of casual illness and unauthorised absence and I was advised by Ofsted to have a representative from the governing body to act as Attendance Governor. Anne Leroux (parent of William, in Blue Base) has kindly offered to fulfil this role. Anne and I will be working closely together to support our families and to extend an offer of help wherever possible in order to get the children in school and on time.

Both Anne and all of the staff here at Broomhill, wish to support you, our lovely families, as much as we possibly can. So please do contact either one of us if you need assistance with getting your child to school on time each day.

Best wishes,

Jane (headteacher@broomhill.sheffield.sch.uk) and Anne (anne.leroux@live.fr)
